Programme: Certificate in Communicative Marathi

Credits: 4 Duration: 120 hrs

Objectives:

1. Teaching of Marathi language to non-native speakers through the integrated communicative approach.
2. Facilitation of teaching of Marathi by latest teaching methods, techniques and tools with additional content generation for audio visual learning programmes used across the world in teaching various modern languages.
3. To bring the teaching of Marathi language on par with the international standards in language teaching.
4. Imparting Language Acquisition Techniques through the communicative method in a systematic, scientific manner.
5. Standardisation of Marathi language courses in progressive stages for beginners', intermediate and advanced levels.
6. Create a vibrant and democratic academic culture that fosters initiative and independent thinking in students instead of learning languages by rote.
7. Online resources will be deployed.

Rationale of the Certificate in Communicative Marathi:

Teaching of languages, particularly Indian languages, needs to be revolutionized in order to give an impetus to Indian Languages. This requires intense interaction with the methodologies, tools and techniques of teaching, deployed in the teaching of various languages, including foreign languages. This will make Marathi potentially viable as a second, third or foreign language. Marathi and German are both Indo European Languages with similar language structures, so teaching methodology can be similar.

Programme Description:

Understand and use familiar, everyday expressions and very simple sentences, which relate to concrete needs. Proficiency in script, elementary language structures and basic communication skills. This programme shall emphasize communicative competence in Marathi listening, reading, speaking, writing and understanding skills.
